CONSTRUCTION INSPECTION PLANS - BY DAM OWNERS

POLICY STATEMENT:

The dam owner, or the engineering consultant acting as representative of the owner, is required under WAC 173-175-170 to submit a plan detailing how construction inspection activities are to be accomplished. Guidance on the required contents of the construction inspection plan is listed in WAC 173-175-170. Guidance on acceptable levels of construction inspection activities is also contained in Part Two of the Dam Safety Guidelines entitled Plan Approval.

PROCEDURES:

The construction inspection plan is to be submitted during the construction permit process and must be approved by the DSO project leader prior to approval of the plans and issuance of the construction permit. (See also Policy 5201)
